

The Commonwealth Society of Teachers of Dancing 2011 New Syllabus

Jason Winters Contemporary Technique

We are proud to inform you that the world-renowned America born choreographer & dancer Mr. Jason Winters has collaborated exclusively with CSTD to release this one-of-a-kind Contemporary Examination Syllabus in 2011. Its worldwide launch with the Level 1 & 2 will be held

In Hong Kong

On Wednesday 27 July 2011

Jason has wide-ranging experiences (training in GRAHAM, LIMON, HORTON, and CUNNINGHAM Techniques). He has travelled the world with his rich experience in the dance world and earned his credits both in performing & choreography. Please see the attached file.

It is our honour & opportunity for our teachers in Hong Kong to experience this exciting syllabus and attend the workshop which is conducted by Jason himself in this summer.

The syllabus will commence at 10-11 years old children through a comprehensive programme of training and examinations will lead up to the teaching qualifications level. The strong technique will offer young dancers the opportunity to be physically & emotionally challenged as artists, and to pursue their chosen career paths in dance.

Limited places are available & priority is given to CSTD teachers.

Teachers who intend to teach this syllabus must attend.

Eligible Teacher Certificate (ETC) of Level One & Level Two will be granted from CSTD to the capable teachers who attend and complete the teacher course for two years. ETC teachers can enroll candidates in at least one examination session per year and continuous to complete all grades to get the CSTD's professional Teaching Certificate and Diploma.
